The Great Stupa of Universal Compassion

Bendigo, Australia

THE LARGEST STUPA IN THE WESTERN WORLD

Immerse yourself in Tibetan culture, architecture, art and interfaith harmony with a tour inside the most sacred building in Buddhism. The Great Stupa of Universal Compassion rises from the distinctive bushland of Bendigo, just 2 hours from Melbourne, at an impressive height of almost 50 metres. It is based on the Great Stupa of Gyantse in Tibet and is being built to last 1000 years.

The Great Stupa is run as a not-for-profit organisation that offers a place of peace and harmony for all beings.

TOURS

Tours are run from our Visitor Centre, where our friendly and informative tour guides will welcome you. You'll see an introductory video, stroll through our gardens, enter the Great Stupa temple where you will be amazed and inspired by the vision, the large statues and our collection of Buddhist artefacts.

"The Great Stupa will illuminate the world."

- Lama Zopa Rinpoche

PEACE PARK - INTERFAITH GARDENS

The Peace Park at the main entrance to the Great Stupa is dedicated to interfaith harmony with many symbols from different faiths on display, amongst its flourishing gardens. Wander this unique space which is the only interfaith park of its kind, in the world. The whole site is pet friendly.

JADE BUDDHA

The Jade Buddha for Universal Peace is the largest Buddha carved from gem quality jade in the world. An international icon for peace seen by over 12 million people worldwide.

STUPAVIEW CAFE
